Chris is an experienced litigator with an extensive background in insurance coverage, personal injury, business and real estate law. In addition to his litigation practice, Chris teaches seminars on landlord tenant law, and advises candidates and organizations on election law; including representation of clients in front of boards of elections, registered political action committees and service as Treasury and Deputy Treasurer for various judicial campaign committees.

A graduate of The Ohio State University and student in International Law through immersive study in London, England, Chris returned to his Irish roots in Cleveland to attend Cleveland-Marshall School of Law and remains a resident on Cleveland's West Side to this day.

While in Columbus, Chris worked in the Ohio Statehouse for a local State Senator watching and learning the legislative process firsthand.

When he is away from the office, Chris can be found hiking with his dogs on the trails in the Metroparks. During the summer, he spends his time at the golf course trying to straighten out his drive and in the autumn he will be watching Buckeyes' Football.
